Declaration of the NASA / A+FlowTek Balanced Flow Meter

The Balanced Flow Meter (BFM) and Balanced Venturi Meter (BVM), including but not limited to the figuration, appearance, principle, design or construction, is patented in the USA, China and many other countries. All rights are owned by NASA, and the rights are licensed to APlus-QMC LLC. The co-inventor, Paul Van Buskirk, is the owner of APlus-QMC LLC.

We, APlus-QMC LLC, affirm that Shanghai KeyonTechs Co., LTD (Company Name in Chinese: 上海科洋科技股份有限公司) is the sole exclusive representative in China to the year 2048, for the NASA BFM and BVM.

We herby avow that any other party who declares his authorization from NASA, or APlus-QMC (A+QMC), A+FLOW, A+FLOWMETER, A+FLUID, A+green, A+FlowTek is illegal fraud. Any other party's behavior of producing, fabricating, selling, marketing etc. in China is illegal forgery, and we reserve the right to put them to a lawsuit or accusation.

We noticed that there is a company in China called A+FLOW CONTROL (SHANGHAI) CO., LTD with Chinese name: 艾加流体控制（上海）有限公司, Address: Number 23, Lane 328 Mingle Road, Fengxian District, Shanghai (Address in Chinese: 上海市奉贤区民乐路 328 弄 23 号), is using our Intellectual Property Rights illegally. We authorize the legal entities in China to take legal actions to protect our IPR. We are doing likewise in the United States.

Signed this 20th of August, 2021
